Subject: Transition over the ABB mark

With reference to your letter dated April 29, 2014 concerning the full integration of "Power-One" into "ABB" and the transition over to the ABB name, brand and brand standards starting from 1st May 2014, herewith DEKRA confirms that all Certificates/Attestation of Conformity and Test Report issued by DEKRA to the License Holder Power-One Italy S.p.A. referring to products with Trade Mark "Power-One Italy" can be considered still valid even if the products are branded with the new Trade Mark "ABB".

The License Holder of the products remains Power-One Italy S.p.A., legal names of the factory locations and model numbers, technical identity and type designation of the products presently manufactured with Power-One Trade Mark are not being changed with the exception of the new Trade Mark ABB.

It is full responsibility of the manufacturer to ensure that the series production is identical to the tested samples over the time and therefore presumed to be still in compliance with the stated standard.
